

PAN DOWN TO KYLIAM. DEEPER AND FARTHER WE GO INTO THE PLANET. Through CLOUDS AND ATMOSPHERE, we go. A Kyliam Transport plane passes us while thunder and dark clouds take over the sky.

KEEP PANNING DOWN UNTIL WE SEE...

THE DIRTY, ROTTEN, crime-filled planet of Kyliam. A high-rise fancy skyscraper rises over the poor and slavery that lives below it. TONS and TONS of unhealthy smoke comes out of HUGE SMOKE PIPES. Neon-blue, futuristic-looking railroad tracks line the front of the skyscraper going towards it. The skyscraper is also known as "The Vestron Castle"

Pan down to an 80* angle, to the slavery life. Whipping, shouting. Massive outbreak. All of which equal a terrible life for the lower class. After, another minute of slow pan as we see a 13-year-old boy in torn clothes and sneakers. Messy hair. This is our main protagonist: TIM.

Tim is wielding an axe, in order to smash gold and diamonds for dictator Vestron. Behind him is a rusty old cart so he could put the loot in. That's his job for 12 hours a day (2am to 2am the next day), he has to axe gold and diamonds and put it in that same cart and dump it for Vestron to use. Not only that but Kyliam's weather system and environment isn't really friendly. Earthquakes erupt somewhere from between every 3 weeks to 4 months. The caves where he works also have frequent massive rockslides that could damage/kill somebody.

5 minutes later and Tim seems to be slowing down for tiredness. Tim looks behind him and up the Vestron Castle. He has a plan though. To escape this dump and go on a galactic hunt to stop the slave era of the galaxy.

One day!

WHIP! Suddenly Tim is on the ground hurt. WHIP! Tim is now struggling. Whipping him with a metal chain is a guard at Tim's post. The struggling slave is attempting to get up but can't.

Instead, the guard forcefully pulls him up and slams to the rock wall.

GUARD:

Disobedient. Oh! How Vestron would love to see you.

Tim is being pulled by the shirt by the guard..

PAN UP TO SEE THE VESTRON CASTLE...

CUT TO:

INT. VESTRON CASTLE - UPPER PLANET KYLIAM

Coming in like a ROCKING BOAT, the inside of the castle has BLUE DIAMOND LIGHTING - decreased by 20%. In the middle lies a MASSIVE STONE-COVERED THRONE CHAIR... On it. A 6'3' Silver-armored humanoid: Vestron.

We ROCK IN AND PUSH FORWARD as...

VESTRON:

(Singing)

CONTINUED:

VESTRON (CONT'D):

Blutrote Rosen

Soll'n dich umkosen

Sollen dir sagen:

Dich hab' ich lieb, nur allein dich

Wenn dann die Rosen...

Surrounding the dictator are guards and people only loyal to him. The guards are dressed in Royal Iron armor with a huge spear on their right. While some loyalists are dressed like hags, others are dressed in fancy rich clothes.

Before the Grand Dictator of Planet Kyliam are 10 HUGE flat screen SECURITY CAMERA screens. These screens are documenting real world time, what is happening in every corner of Kyliam. Every camera is hidden every 5 feet apart from the last.

Vestron is singing "Blutrote Rosen" again...

VESTRON (CONT'D):

Blutrote Rosen

Soll'n dich umkosen

Sollen dir sagen:

Dich hab' ich lieb, nur allein dich

Wenn dann die Rosen

Dich zärtlich umkosen

Denke zuweilen

Ein wenig an mich...

The gold doors open and in comes the guard and Tim. Vestron stops what he is doing, gets up from his chair and walks over to him.

Towering over the slave, Vestron speaks:

VESTRON:

Tim. Slave to the Post F.14 of the Grand Dictator of Planet Kyliam. Citizen to the Republic of the Dictator of Planet Kyliam, you my friend have broken rules applied, if I'm not mistaken, to every single living soul on this planet. How... have you broken rules? You are very disobedient. You find ways to fake why you are late to your post, which obviously symbolizes you want to leave here. Among many other things.
CONTINUED:

(Gets something going in his mouth)

(SPITS AT TIM)

Tim REACTS TO THIS by lifting his right hand and wiping it off. Vestron turns to go back to his chair while low growling noises come from him, then immediately, instantaneously, whips back around to face Tim and lands his silver-armored left hand to the 13-year-old's center and Tim goes flying. Tim hits the wall hard and goes down hard. On the ground struggling, Tim finds a way to get up. But before he is able to, the dictator KICKS HIM. Then: grabs the slave and puts him against the wall.

VESTRON (CONT'D):

(GROWLING)

For years, You have not been like the others. The other pitiful slaves who work their heart out every single day. I simply cannot allow this anymore, so... here you are. With a final sentence of... death.

(Drops Tim)

Vestron goes to his chair and slumps down.

VESTRON (CONT'D):

(To the Guard)

Execute Tim immediately... By beheading. Good-bye Tim.

(Motions 'head being sliced')

(Laughs)

The Guard grabs Tim and heads to leave when...

Tim uses his strength to push the guard and take his staff.

TIM:

(Yelling)

ALRIGHT VESTRON, THAT'S ENOUGH!

CONTINUED:

SILENCE...

BEAT...

UNCONTROLLABLE LAUGHTER FILLS THE ROOM...

VESTRON:

You really think. You're capable of handling this entire room with one metal stick, Tim?

Tim says no as he FIDDLES with the staff,

TIM (CONT'D):

"But the guards have a small explosive hidden inside their staff."

(Clicks it open)

"Capable of killing you within seconds. I just armed it on!

Minus well rethink your plans. Bam, what?"

Tim grins as he THROWS THE EXPLOSIVE TOWARDS VESTRON. And runs out of the castle.

VESTRON:
GUUAARRRDSSS!!!.

BLAST!!!

- UNDERGROUND KYLIAM - BELOW VESTRON CASTLE

Tim runs through the underground where he worked. Through the tight corners and twists and turns of the underground.

2 minutes later, he finds a wall above him so quickly he puts his legs out and CLIMBS UP THE wall.

As soon as he does this, the maze of the underground is below him. While railroad tracks are above him. He looks around. Compared to the underground and the Vestron Castle, Planet Kyliam is endless and beautiful. The cool breeze of the morning is refreshing, while the sun rises over the peaks of the edge of the planet.

He couldn't stay there long as guards followed him and cornered him. Tim would not be denied and tossed around again. Determined to find his speed, strength and wit back, he knew he had to do one thing: escape.

Running on top of the underground walls, he narrowly gets past the guards and pushes a few off the top.

Unfortunately though, the top runs for about a mile then drops to a pad zone for the Air & Space Company for Kyliam.

Tim continues to dodge the guards and runs on top.

5 minutes later,

- PAD ZONE FOR THE AIR & SPACE COMPANY FOR KYLIAM.

The ex-slave has finally made it to the metallic pad zone. When he jumps, he almost slips. There's a Cruiser 3IV up ahead. That has enough fuel to get me completely away from here. He thought.

And here comes the trouble..

Fast approaching on Gear wheels.

Compare that to the speed of an ex-slave who has no strength and has been stripped of his abilities... It's not good. Knowing what is behind him, Tim runs as fast as he possibly could.

A guard's Gear Wheel comes up in front of him and sticks his electric staff at the ex-slave. Tim looks right at him, then tries to grab the staff - fails the first time.

But doesn't the fifth time as he firmly grabs a hold of the staff and YANKS the guard off the wheel, in which it stops abruptly. Tim, then, goes to the wheel and ZOOMS OFF.

TIM:

(Jaw-dropped)

WOWW!!! This thing really does move.

Over the course of the next few minutes, Tim fights the other guards on Gear Wheels.

- SHIP PORT - PLANET KYLIAM

Tim's Gear Wheel finally arrives at the Ship Port, where he'll find the ship, Cruiser 3IV, to get out of Kyliam.

Since he doesn't know how to stop it, he jumps off. Gets up and walks inside the Ship Port and climbs into the ship. Studies the controls and off he goes...

Into the Planet's atmosphere.

TIM:

Later Kyliam.

- PLANET ATMOSPHERE - OUTSIDE KYLIAM

Once he reaches the atmosphere and is totally out of Kyliam's control, he then blasts off to HYPER VOYAGE...

Tim is finally free of Kyliam's cruel control!

CUT TO:

- DESTROYED VESTRON CASTLE - KYLIAM

In the rumble and crumble of what used to lie Vestron's Castle, Guards and followers of Vestron are lifting the rocks and colorful diamond that once built the castle.

THEN:

A shaky, low-groaning RUMBLES THE ASHES... it GROWS LOUDER...

CONTINUED:

When suddenly...

TRANSITION TO:

- COMING OUT OF HYPER VOYAGE - GALACTIC TRAVELING

Tim's small Cruiser 3IV ROCKETS OUT OF Hyper Voyage...

HYPER VOYAGE: A method of galaxy traveling from one place to another.

... We "fly in" to the Cruiser 3IV.

- CRUISER 3IV

Tim's fingers mess with the controls as he makes his way across the galaxy. To where? He does not know yet.

We "fly out" of the Cruiser 3IV as it continues to move its way through the galaxy.

- INFINITE GALAXY

As we adventure across the INFINITE GALAXY and the billions of stars surrounding us, we see Tim's small Cruiser 3IV. Like a little speck of dust in the giant galaxy. His FINAL DESTINATION: UNKNOWN.

A FEW MINUTES LATER AND WE ENTER...

HYPER VOYAGE - The Cruiser 3IV is now engulfed in transportation galactic winds.

It's only a FEW SECONDS THOUGH, before we drop out of HYPER VOYAGE. We continue the journey throughout the Galaxy.

Meanwhile, a small ship of some kind COMES INTO VIEW and slips away. QUICKLY as it came.

Tim's CRUISER 3IV is still breezing through the galaxy. When suddenly, BLAST! The ship's computer SCREAMS with ALERTS. Tim RUSHES to try to fix the rapid issues.

JUST THEN, out of the almost shadows of the infinite space, a massive off-colored MATTE BLACK AIRSHIP comes towards Tim's ant-sized ship.

Another BLAST! The Cruiser's engines are failing. And it's descending FAST. A wire attaches itself to the Cruiser from the airship. Another.

HE'S BEING PULLED IN.

TIM POV: the scene changes from a galaxy-filled... sky to the off-colored NOTHINGNESS. Multiple thoughts rush inside our ex-slave's mind. Is he going back to Kyliam? What's going to happen to him? Lots and lots of thoughts rushing inside his mind. Inside a pool of thoughts, he manages to get out one: to close his eyes and think good thoughts. Good times for... later. Possibly.

The ship gets stopped abruptly, his eyes open, or do they? Since it's so dark in there. He wouldn't see either way. There's movement outside his ship, however. The top hatch opens.

WE HEAR TRIBAL DRUMS ARE HEARD. WE SEE NOTHING. Poke! Tim's eyes open to...

INT. GREAT HALL - ARSHIP

...Frogs of some kind drumming to the beat of the tribal music. Flags are hung on the walls. Torches also hang on every other column. Tim keeps looking around when...

VOICE:

Welcome! Stranger...
(The ex-slave looks around)
...to our Arship.

A RICH-FILLED RED CAPE flows gently through the air as it makes its way down. Tim looks up just in time to see a toad... wearing a... cape? That's weird!

TOAD (CONT'D):
(Build-up)

As you may know, I am the one. The only. The infamous...
(Along with him, the drummers build up reveal)
...Lord of the Felon Warship Armada... GAR...

THEN: suddenly an electric guitar version of AXEL F interrupts him. The "lord" looks to his LEFT in surprise. The electric guitarist is before the tribal drummers. The drummers are shocked as well.

Having come from a dictatorship planet, Tim is on the verge of laughing. He never thought this was possible.

A minute later and it's over.

Gargano, the Lord of the Felon Warship Armada, looked at the guitarist in question. The other walked off, head down.

The lord, then, went back to what he was doing..

GARGANO (CONT'D):
...Lord of the Felon Warship Armada...
GARGANO!!! So stranger, what may I do for you?
