...SUDDENLY we find ourselves in the middle of the great, awe-inspiring universe. This is:

15 years ago.

Before the Derision Invasion...

We TAKE IN this beautiful scape until a whirlpool of sorts starts to form. A rumbling is felt when suddenly BANG! A sight to be seen, for no ordinary creature has not seen this. A FREAKING GALAXY IS BEING FORMED RIGHT IN FRONT OF OUR EYES! Just a baby. JUST A BABY GALAXY having knowing nothing. Not knowing it'll be the city of more than a thousand of species from human to aliens of all shapes and sizes. Incredible.

In the middle of this, three HUGE cosmic beings appear to help this infant. These beings, THE INCEPTIONS, appear to be translucent, almost see through, as their cooling system stored within the body, allow them to project their surroundings. In case of other beings like the Inceptions in the great many galaxies.

A RUMBLINGS IS FELT more so than ever. BANG! The Bulkin Galaxy is now ready to be inhabited.

TRANSITION WITH GALAXY FLASH:

15 YEARS LATER

Within the depths of the now teenage galaxy, in its endless stars, a massive ship cutting like a knife is THE VANISHER. Slicing through the boundless galaxy, it makes its way to unknown regions.

Other ships of similar size to smaller scale are traversing the area.

INT. THE VANISHER - BRIDGE

We follow the length of the bridge. Straight in front of us a tall, mid skinny/mid-fat General (50s). GENERAL RALIK, LEADER OF THE VANISHER CREW. The 50-year-old, has come here from outside of the Bulkin Galaxy. It's neighbor, the Jalikin Galaxy was his birth galaxy. Suddenly he senses a presence and does a military turn to:

GEN. RALIK:
Captain Kion expecting me,
Lieutenant?

(CONTD):

LIEUTENANT KESCHEL:

Yes, sir. Curiously, as of 10 minutes ago. He was watching schematics when I left. Of a battle between two teams. Better leave this arrangement to yourself and the Captain, sire.

They both nod and while Keschel heads off, General Ralik takes a quick glance at the galaxy then exits the bridge out into the hallway.

INT. HALLWAY ENTRANCE TO KION - THE VANISHER

A metal sliding door opens and closes as General Ralik walks in. It is dimly light, only by a small outside window and a white-colored light strip. Ralik, then, enters a code within the keypad. It responds. The sliding door on the opposite side of the hallway opens and Ralik enters into...

INT. THE VANISHER - CAPTAIN KION'S QUARTERS

A BIG room with over sized windows and a huge display to match. On that display is a battle just like Lieutenant Keschel mentioned. The finish is MATTE-BLACK. Two guards are guarding the door into the Hallway in which Ralik came from.

He knows the drill by now. Wait by the door until either escorted to the Captain himself or until he calls...

CAPTAIN KION:

Come in, General! I'm eager to see what you make of this.

Answering, the 50-year-old quietly strides beside Kion's right side. Captain Kion (mid-30s) has more of a build (Like Hugh Laurie). Has a streak of cool white and black hair, with a uniform all touched up and fancy.

GEN. RALIK:

Lieutenant Keschel mentioned a battle, sir. Between whom?

CAPTAIN KION:

A battle between Star Crusaders and the pirates known only as The Hunters.

Ralik watches this duel with confusion on his mind. Why in the galaxy would our common foe battle a low-scavenger like the Hunters?

(GLANCES OVER)

Confused, General? So I'm I. That is why I want a 5 minute departure to their exact location. Let's see what exactly we're dealing with.
